 2. A certificate as Certified Public Accountant or a Certified Internal Auditor, obtained through written examination.

OR

3. Completion of the requirements for a degree that included substantial course work in accounting or auditing, e.g., 15 semester hours, but that does not fully satisfy the 24 semester hour requirement of paragraph A, provided that; (a) the applicant has worked at the full performance level in accounting, auditing or a related field, e.g., valuation engineering or financial institution examining; (b) a panel of at least two higher-level professional accountants or auditors has determined that the applicant has demonstrated a good knowledge of accounting and of related and underlying fields that equals in breadth, depth, currency, and level of advancement that which is normally associated with successful completion of the 4-year course of study described in paragraph A; and (c) except for literal nonconformance to the requirements of 24 semester hours in accounting, the applicant's education, training, and experience fully meet the specified requirements.

In addition to meeting the basic requirements, applicants for the GS-9/11 levels must have at least one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level. Specialized experience is experience that is directly related to the position to be filled and which has equipped the candidate with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position. OR

For the GS-9, 2 years of progressively higher graduate level education leading to a master's degree or a master's or equivalent degree.

For the GS-11, 3 years of progressively higher graduate level education leading to a Ph.D. or a Ph.D. or equivalent doctoral degree.

In addition to meeting the basic requirements, applicants for the GS-12 level must have at least one year of specialized experience equivalent to the next lower grade level. Specialized experience is experience that is directly related to the position to be filled and which has equipped the candidate with the particular knowledge, skills, and abilities to successfully perform the duties of the position.

KNOWLEDGE, ABILITIES, SKILLS, AND OTHER CHARACTERISTICS (KASOCs):

Applicants should address the following factors, in a narrative form, on a separate sheet of paper. This supplemental information will be the principal basis for determining whether or not an applicant is highly qualified for this position. Applicants may expand upon the information that is provided in their application and, should consider appropriate work experience, outside activities, awards, training, and education for each of the items listed below.

1. Knowledge of the principles, standards, methods, procedures and theory of professional accounting.
2. Knowledge of automated trust accounting systems.
3. Skill in interpersonal relationships (negotiating, problem solving, conflict resolution, oral and written communication).

5. DI-1935, Applicant Background Survey. (Submission of this form is voluntary. This information will be used solely to review compliance with Federal law. Consideration for this job will not be affected by failure to submit this form.)
6. College Transcripts if you are using education (individually or in combination with experience) to qualify for this position.

In addition, while not required, it is recommended that applicants address the specific knowledge, skills, abilities, and other characteristics (KASOCs) listed on the vacancy announcement that are necessary for successful performance of the work. It is recommended that you provide a narrative statement for each KASOC addressing how your education, experience, training, and awards relate to these KASOCs to show how you are highly qualified for this position.

Please have the attached Supervisory Appraisal of Demonstrated Performance or Potential completed by your supervisor and submit with your application. Although appraisals will be used in ranking, no candidate will be screened out automatically for failure of his/her supervisor to complete an appraisal.

Your written application for employment must include the following:

Announcement number, and title, series, and grade of the job for which you are applying.

Indication of the locations for which you are interested if more than one location is specified in the vacancy announcement.

Personal information - complete name, mailing address (with ZIP code), telephone numbers (daytime and evening), social security number, and citizenship information. If applying under a special employment program, identify program (e.g., veterans' preference, reinstatement, handicapped appointment eligibility) and include appropriate qualifying documentation (e.g., DD-214, SF-50).

Educational information - high school name, city, state (ZIP code, if known), and date of diploma or GED; college/university name, city, state (with ZIP), declared major, dates attended, and type of degree and date received; graduate school name, city, state (with ZIP), major subject, dates attended, and type of degree and date received. If no degree was received, show credits earned (identify whether in quarters or semesters). Unless otherwise stated in this announcement, certified transcripts are not required.

Work experience - supply the following information for the paid and non- paid work you have performed that qualify you for this job: (a) job title (title, series, and grade, if Federal), (b) statement of major duties and accomplishments, employer's name and mailing address, (c) supervisor's complete name and telephone number, (d) month and year of starting and ending dates, (e) numbers of hours worked per week, and (f) salary. Indicate whether we may contact your current supervisor.

Other qualifications related to this job - courses (title and year), relevant skills (e.g., other languages, computer skills, mechanical skills, typing speed), and current professional certificates and licenses (identify issuing authority and date). You may also note any job related honors, awards, and special accomplishments, but DO NOT send documents (e.g., letters of commendation, newspaper clippings).

Senior Executive Service recruitment only - Provide copy of Candidate Development Program Certificate, if applicable.

Unless otherwise stated elsewhere in this announcement, applications will be accepted from individuals with competitive status, with Indian Preference, from severely handicapped individuals (regardless of competitive status), from Veterans Readjustment Appointment (VRA) eligibles (through GS-11) and veterans with compensable disability of 30% or more, and others eligible for appointment under special appointing authorities. Veterans who are preference eligibles or who have been separated from the armed forces under honorable conditions after 3 years or more of continuous active service may apply.

Documentation of eligibility must be submitted with the initial application. Please indicate if you are applying under one of these authorities and submit appropriate documentation (e.g., DD 214; Standard Form 15; required proof of entitlement such as the Veterans Administration letter, etc.)

Status candidates who wish to be considered under both merit promotion and excepted appointment procedures must submit two complete applications. When only one application is received from a status candidate, it will be considered only under merit promotion procedures.

A background security investigation will be required for all new hires. Appointment will be subject to the applicant's successful completion of a background security investigation and favorable adjudication. Failure to successfully meet these requirements will be grounds for termination.

As a condition of employment, male applicants born after December 31, 1959, must certify that they have registered with the Selective Service System, or are exempt from having to do so under Selective Service law.

U.S. citizenship is required.

All new employees of the Office of the Special Trustee for American Indians are asked to identify a financial institution for direct deposit of pay.

If you are selected for a supervisory or managerial position, you must serve a probationary period. Failure to complete the probationary period successfully can result in return to your former position, or to a position of no lower grade and pay than the one which you left to accept the supervisory or managerial position.

Your application contains information subject to the Privacy Act (P.L. 93-579, 5 U.S.C. 552a). The information is used to determine qualifications for employment, and is authorized under Title 5 of the U.S. Code, Sections 3302 and 3361.

In accordance with 18 U.S.C. 1719 and 39 U.S.C. 3201 SEQ., applications will not be accepted from applicants using franked Government envelopes, or postage-paid agency envelopes or metered mail.

The Department of the Interior is an Equal Opportunity Employer. Within the scope of Indian Preference (where applicable), selection for positions will be made solely on the basis of merit, fitness and qualifications without regard to race, gender, sexual orientation, color, religion, age, marital status, national origin, non-disqualifying handicap conditions, or any other non-merit factor.

This agency provides reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the agency. The decision on granting reasonable accommodation will be on a case-by-case basis.
